Toronto gets a one night only taste of Niagara this March

JACKSON-TRIGGS NIAGARA ESTATE AMPHITHEATRE PRESENTS ROOTSTOCK AT THE WINTER GARDEN
FEATURING ALAN DOYLE, STEVEN PAGE AND LINDI ORTEGA

TORONTO – This year, one of Niagara region's most loved musical series launches in the heart of Toronto. On March 29, 2014, the Jackson-Triggs Niagara Estate Amphitheatre recreates its intimate ambiance for one night only at the Winter Garden Theatre (189 Yonge Street) in downtown Toronto. ROOTSTOCK at the Winter Garden unites music, wine and Niagara-region food for a warm and intimate evening event.

Hosted by CBC Radio Two Morning Host Tom Power, the stage is set as a songwriter's circle evening featuring the songs and voices of venerable Canadian musicians Alan Doyle, Steven Page and Lindi Ortega. Tickets to ROOTSTOCK at the Winter Garden are on sale now. Prices range from $30-$60 are available via ticketmaster.com or via phone at 416-861-9252.

Limited dinner and event tickets are also available via jacksontriggswinery.com for $109 or via 1-866-589-4637 ext 2 Selected wines from Jackson-Triggs will be showcased at the dinner, alongside local Niagara region foods from the Tide & Vine Oyster Company and Pingue Prosciutto.

The Jackson-Triggs Niagara Estate Amphitheatre is a 500 seat open-air venue located on the beautiful Jackson-Triggs winery estate (2145 Niagara Stone Rd) in the heart of Niagara-on-the-lake. The amphitheatre hosts a special series of 12-15 concerts each summer season beginning in late June and running to late August. Past Canadian artists have included the Sam Roberts Band, Chantal Kreviazuk, The Tragically Hip, Jann Arden and Colin James. For tickets and more information about the upcoming 2014 summer season at the amphitheatre, visit jacksontriggswinery.com or call 1-866-589-4637 ext 2 This year's summer season goes on sale on April 2, 2014.
