Jackson-Triggs Niagara Estate Winery presents Twilight in the Vineyard 's 2010 season line-up:

TOM COCHRANE with Andrew Cole - JULY 3:

Tom Cochrane has penned such classic songs as "Life is a Highway" and "Big League", always delivering a uniquely Canadian Perspective through his lyrics. A long and fascinating career characterized by creative adventurousness and musical and personal integrity make Tom Cochrane a highly deserving inductee into the Canadian Music Hall of Fame and the winner of seven Juno awards. Andrew Cole will open for Tom with his powerful songs - according to Tom, Andrew has "a voice that most singers would die for".

THE CANADIAN TENORS - JULY 17:

The Canadian Tenors - Victor Micallef, Clifton Murray, Remigio Pereira and Fraser Walters - deliver an eclectic blend of classical and contemporary pop. They've received rave reviews appearing with Andrea Bocelli at the Tel Aviv Opera, headlining ONE NIGHT LIVE with Sting and Sheryl Crow at Toronto's Air Canada Centre and performing alongside Celine Dion on The Oprah Winfrey Show.

GORD DOWNIE AND THE COUNTRY OF MIRACLES - JULY 24:

Canadian singer, song writer and poet Gord Downie will deliver an unpredictable and unforgettable evening. Downie's highly anticipated third solo offering, The Grand Bounce, is set for release on June 8th.

CHANTAL KREVIAZUK AND RAINE MAIDA - AUGUST 7 AND 8:

Juno award-winning Chantal Kreviazuk has released five albums of original music creating international hits such as "Surrounded", "Feels Like Home" and "Invincible". Chantal's most recent release, Plain Jane, came out in October 2009. Raine Maida, best known as being frontman for Our Lady Peace, is also an established solo artist. This Canadian musical power couple are also committed supporters of War Child Canada.

MICHAEL KAESHAMMER AND JILL BARBER - AUGUST 21:

Michael Kaeshammer's style can be described as a brilliant and original jazz meets pop musical gumbo. Kaeshammer was the big winner at this year's Canadian Smooth Jazz Awards, taking two of his three nominations. With her sultry voice, Jill Barber is a singer-songwriter who appreciates the beauty of a bygone musical era, delivering hits such as "Oh My My" and "Chances". Barber won the Female Artist Recording of the Year award for her debut album Oh Heart at the 2005 Music Nova Scotia Awards as well as being nominated for a Juno in 2008 for her Album For All Time.

MARK OF ZORRO SILENT FILM with Musical Accompaniment By Nicholas Coulter & Graham Hargrove - AUGUST 27:

If you love classic stories as they were meant to be viewed and heard, this silent film/musical performance is a must see. Due to overwhelming numbers of patron requests from our original 2003 performance, we are bringing back this 1920 silent film starring Douglas Fairbanks and Noah Beery. This is a genre-defining swashbuckler adventure and the first movie version of The Mark of Zorro with extraordinary musicians Nicholas Coulter and Graham Hargrove performing their original percussive score live during the film.

JESSE COOK - AUGUST 28:

Jesse Cook is a Nuevo Flamenco guitarist known for the energy of his live shows. Seven studio albums in fifteen years is, in itself, a measure of his artistic success. For this latest recording, The Rhumba Foundation, he wanted to trace rumba flamenco back to its roots in Cuba. His instincts though got the better of him and he wound up spending time in Bogota, Colombia. The resulting body of work is sublime, a continuation of Cook's insatiable appetite for world music in all its forms.

SARAH HARMER - SEPTEMBER 4:

Known for her lyrically forthright musical performance with vibrant enthralling vocals, Sarah Harmer is a two time Juno award winning singer-songwriter. With international hits like "Basement Apartment" and "Don't Get Your Back Up" from her album You Were Here, Time Magazine dubbed Sarah Harmer's third solo album I'm a Mountain "exceptional" and the New York Times singled out "I Am Aglow," calling it "the prettiest song about deception you'll hear all year." Her first album in five years, oh little fire, comes out in June.

ROOTSTOCK - DATE AND LINE-UP TBC:

After a resounding success in its first year, the 2nd annual Rootstock will return in August - this year's line-up and details will be announced in the coming weeks.
